

WANTS A FERRY AT FERRY PASS

P. Tamassello of Santa Rosa County Thinks One
Would Pay.

Chairman Peter Tamassello of the board of county commissioners of Santa Rosa county was in Pensacola last week and a Journal representative saw him relative to the long talked-of necessity for some form of bridge or ferry connection between Escambia and Santa Rosa counties. Mr. Tamassello said that there should of course be some way by which teams and automobiles could get from one county to the other, but that he did not think the proposed bridge at McDavids was practicable at this time.

"In the first place," said Mr. Tamassello, "Santa Rosa county has not the money with which to build this bridge and in the second place the building of the bridge would be a much more difficult matter than most people imagine. The Escambia river is a navigable stream and the water department would in all probability require a draw bridge over it. That would be very expensive."

"What I would like to see," he continued, "is for some one to put in a power ferry boat between Ferry Pass and Floridatown. The distance is barely four miles with smooth water all of the way. A ferry could be put in for from $2,500 to $3,000 and it would make a paying investment from the start. We would then have a good wagon and automobile road all the way from Pensacola to Milton, and a ferry run on regular schedule would accommodate all of the travel easily."

Mr. Tamassello is a good roads enthusiast and he believes that West Florida can never be fully developed until we have a hard road system through the section.

COLUMBIA JURY RETURNS MORE INDICTMENTS

PRESIDENT OF CINCINNATI FIRM IS UNDER INDICTMENT IN CON-NECTION WITH THE DISPEN-SARY GRAFT CASES.

By Associated Press.
Columbia, S. C., Sept. 11.—The grand jury today returned indictment charging Dennis Westcott, president of the Nivison-Westcott Co. of Cincinnati with perjury in connection with labels purchased from him for the state dispensary.

It is probable the dispensary cases will be tried next week.

over his signature." Peary also requests that this written statement from Cook shall be made "to some geographical society or other reputable body."

In this connection Copenhagen dispatches have already stated that Cook was ready to submit his statement to the coast and geodetic survey at Washington or other scientific body if Peary would do the same thing.

DECLARED A "GOLD BRICK."
The use of the phrase "a gold brick" in referring to Cook's claim is looked upon by the champions of Dr.
Cook as particularly offensive. They argued it as not only a challenge of his veracity, but as one of such serious import in referring upon Cook's methods that it calls for immediate substantiation from Peary.

Whether he will give this substantiation at once is open to doubt, in view of his statement that the proof would be presented when "Cook makes a full statement over his signature to some geographical or other reputable body." Commander Peary has now taken action as a naval officer as well as an explorer, by reporting officially to the president, to the navy department and to the coast and geodetic survey at Washington that he reached the north pole April 6, 1909.

These official reports are in line with arguments presented at the hearing of injunction proceedings yesterday over the question of publishing Peary's personal narrative, when it was maintained by James M. Beck, former assistant attorney general of the United States, that Peary's achievement constituted a historical fact accomplished by a United States officer on a public mission.

TO MEET COOK.
The Arctic Club of America further perfected its plans today for meeting Cook on his arrival. A large steamer having a capacity of 2,000 people has been chartered to go down the bay to meet the explorer on his arrival on the Oscar II, which sailed from Chris-tiansand at noon today. Many distinguished persons, including the chief officials of Brooklyn and representatives of scientific and geographical bodies, will be invited.

Mrs. Cook will also be a guest on board the steamer which goes to greet Dr. Cook. A flotilla of steam yachts, tugs, etc., is also preparing to move seaward and greet the Oscar II on its approach. The plan is to bring Dr.
Cook to the landing at New York where he will proceed across the city to Brooklyn, where a rapturous reception is awaiting him. The borough will be decorated and a huge floral arch will span the street approaching his modest home on Brunswick avenue.

The plan for Peary's reception when he arrives is also being elaborated by his adherents, but details are in abeyance owing to the uncertainty of the time at which he will reach New York. He was to have reached Sydney today, but delay at Battle Harbor will put off the arrival at Sydney until perhaps the middle of next week.

PEARY NOTIFIES THE
WASHINGTON OFFICIALS

Washington, Sept. 11.—To the president of the United States and to the secretary of state, before whom department may come any questions that may arise regarding the right of possession of the region of the north pole and the arctic region traversed by Peary and to the navy department, of which he is an officer, Commander Robert E. Peary had communicated the result of his expedition and the fact that he reached the north pole and hoisted the stars and stripes on April 6th last.

As soon as he came within telegraphic communication, Mr. Peary notified the president of what he had accomplished, and followed this up with dispatches sent yesterday from Battle Harbor, where his vessel is now coaling and repairing, to the secretary of state and to the secretary of the navy. In reporting to the state department, Commander Peary, after stating that he hoisted the stars and stripes at the north pole April 6th, adds that he formally took possession of that entire region and adjacent, for and in the name of the president of the United States of America, and that a record and the United States flag were left in possession.

The commander's dispatch to the navy department was typical of that of an officer returning from a mission announcing to his superior officer respectfully that fact and adding that he had hoisted the naval ensign on the north pole on the sixth of April.

Mr. Adeie is acting secretary of state in the absence of Secretary Knox, who is at his Valley Forge home. A copy of Peary's dispatch will be sent to the latter. Mr. Adeie declined to make any comment whatever on the dispatch from Commander Peary that there was no question now before that department.

REPLY TO PEARY.
Mr. Winthrop promptly sent Commander Peary a dispatch on behalf of the navy department, extending his heartily congratulations on "Peary's successful attempt to reach the north pole." Mr. Winthrop voiced the sentiment of the naval officials when he said that the navy department naturally was very much gratified that Civil Engineer Peary, who is an officer in the established corps of the naval establishment, had succeeded after many attempts in reaching the pole. The acting secretary said that there was no doubt that Peary's leave of absence would be extended until such a time as his report to the coast and geodetic survey was completed.

Some little comment and no little amusement was created in the navy department when Peary's dispatch came in this morning, saying that he had hoisted the naval ensign on the north pole. Unlike a number of foreign countries, the American navy has no ensign, but the flag that flies over the vessels of the navy is the same that flies to the breeze over the White House at Washington. There is a navy pennant, but this is said to disseminate ships in commission under certain circumstances.

ROYAL GREETING FOR
COOK AT CHRISTIANSAND

On Board the Steamer Oscar II.
Sept. 11.—(By Wireless Telegraph to Copenhagen).—The greeting accorded Dr. Frederick A. Cook upon his arrival this morning at Christiansand, savoured strongly of the triumphal tour to his own country of a victorious warrior. The American explorer came over from Copenhagen on board the steamer Melchior and by the time that vessel had cast anchor, a cable's length from the Oscar II. At daybreak the small craft had been watching for the entrance of the Melchior. Every vessel in the harbor was gaily decorated with flags and all the available small craft had been chartered to bring out sight-seers from ashore.

A salute of seven guns was fired from the deck of the Melchior and answered by seven guns from the Christiansand fort. This especial honor was accorded Dr. Cook a civilian on a special order issued by King Haakon. Soon as the smoke of the saluting guns had cleared away steam launches darted out from the shore bearing the civil and military authorities to the vessel that Dr.
Cook boarded. The explorer awaited the coming of the officials on the bridge of the Melchior. M. Cold, the manager of the Scandinavian line who had accompanied him from Penhagen, stood by his side. The ship's band played the Star Spangled Banner while the Norwegian deputations paid homage to the explorer.

COOK'S REPLY TO PEARY.
In replying to the congratulations of the Danish officials today on his achievement, Dr. Cook said:

"After reading Sverdrup's book I discerned a new route to the north pole, but I mentioned it to nobody.
I felt impelled to try this route. Commander Peary secured angry because I did not ask his leave."

STATE DEPARTMENT
RECEIVES A CABLE

Washington, Sept. 11.—The following message has been received at the state department from Commander Peary:

"Battle Harbor, Sept. 10, 1909. Hon.
Secretary of State, Washington, D. C.: Respectfully report hoisted stars and stripes on north pole April 6 and formally took possession that entire region and adjacent for and in name of president of the United States of America. Record and United States flag left in possession. PEARY."

Responding to Commander Peary's dispatch, Acting Secretary Winthrop sent the following telegram of congratulation:

"To Commander Peary, Battle Harbor, Labrador: Your telegraphic report received. Navy department extends hearty congratulations on your
pole. WINTHROP."

PEARY CABLES A FRIEND IN BROOKLYN

New York, Sept. 11.—The following cable was received today at the Peary Arctic Club in Brooklyn:
"Battle Harbor, (via Cape Ray), Sept. 9. H. L. Bridgman, Brooklyn, N. Y.: Roosevelt will remain here three or four days coaling. Expect to reach Sydney about the fifteenth.
Have 100 walrus skins on board for the United States. Your whaler and the Jennie received. You are the logical candidate for the polar commission."

Mr. Bridgman is now at Sydney with Mrs. Peary, waiting to meet Commander Peary. The significance of the last sentence is not known at the Peary Arctic Club.

ARBITRATION MAY BE LEFT TO GEOGRAPHIC SOCIETY

Washington, Sept. 11.—The members of the National Geographic Society are watching with intense interest the progress of the stories of the Peary and Cook expeditions to the north pole. Both Commander Peary and Dr. Cook are members of the society.
It has been suggested, though not by officials of the society, that arbitration of the matter of the claims of the two men might well be left to the atonal Geographic Society as well as to the coast and geodetic survey, in view of the inclusion of both men in the society's membership, and the generally representative nature of those who make up its rank and file.
The society however has taken action attesting a tour of the continent and each had come to the conclusion which Mr. Tyler summed up so tersely.

Out of the applied observations given the subject by these three shrewd American men of affairs, there had developed a play which is looked upon by those who have seen it as the most convincing arrangement of the titled rank that has yet been written. It is called "Foreign Exchange," and in its the authors, Messrs. Tarkington and Wilson, have shown the disastrous consequences sure to follow the marriage of a pure-minded American girl to a man brought up to the lax moral idea of Europe. Of course, it is a comedy.

It would be rather hard for these gentlemen to write anything that wasn't comedy. "The Man From Home" and
"Cameo Kirby" are examples of the Tarkington-Wilson product, and proof of the generous depth of their comedy spoken of for governor of Florida two years ago, and is urged to run for the office by many prominent men of the state. In fact, it is no secret among those close in touch with political affairs, that if the judge had given the whole small craft had been watching for the entrance of the Mel-

from ashore.

Should Hon. W. A. Blount, who is considering becoming a candidate, decide to enter the race, it will make a total of five candidates before the people for this important and high position. It is also said that ex-Governor Broward eventually makes up his mind to run, which it is very likely he will do. Claude L'Engle is already campaigning the state, while it is known that Senator Telford will be a candidate to succeed himself.

TWELVE PRISONERS ESCAPE.
Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 11.—A dispatch from Madisonville says twelve prisoners escaped from the Monroe county jail at that place last night.
Two prisoners, a white man and a negro, overpowered a "trustee" whose duty it was to feed the prisoners. As he was serving supper last night he was attacked and while one man held him the other unlocked the cells and liberated all the prisoners. A posse went in pursuit, but none of the escaped men had been captured up to this time.

WORKMAN IS KILLED.
Detroit, Mich., Sept. 11.—John Stepan was killed today and four other foreign workmen were injured when a section of a brick wall at the "E.
M. F." automobile factory collapsed while the men were working on a concrete reinforcement of the wall.

WILL LYNCH NEGRO.
Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 11.—An Erin, Tenn., dispatch says that Jobe Guerin a negro, insulted Mrs. Vida Cambell, a white woman, at Cumberland City yesterday. A mob of one hundred and fifty men are after him, determined to lynch him.

MRS. PRAGUE RELEASED.
Cincinnati, Sept. 10.—After several days' investigation into the death of Scott Prague, who was found dead in a room here, the coroner decided his wife is not guilty, and her release was ordered.

woman, "to see how few quarrels we can have in a year."

FAMOUS ADMIRAL
SENT TO AMERICA
BY KING EDWARD

Sir Edward H. Seymour, admiral of the British fleet, has been designated by King Edward to command the British squadron which will attend the Hudson-Fulton celebration in New York. No choice could have more fittingly attested the interest that Great Britain is taking in the big event, for, besides the honor his high rank will lend to the occasion, the admiral is well known to many officers in the United States navy. He commanded the British naval brigade at the Boxer uprising in China. It is a rare thing for the flag of a British officer of the rank of admiral of the fleet to be known at sea, and the visit of Admiral Seymour to America will be regarded all over the world as an event of signal diplomatic importance.

STAGE NOTES.

"Going Some," with Lawrence Wheat, Walter Lawrence, Herbert Cortell and the original players in the Armstrong-Bench farce comedy, begins its metropolitan season in Albany September 11, moving direct from there to Chicago.

A special company in "The Witching Hour," with Howard Gould, Helen Robertson, Alma Chester and Edward McWade, will inaugurate the Shubert policy at the Metropolitan theatre, New York, next Monday. This theatre is controlled by Turtig & Seamon, who likewise are turning over to the Shuberts the Yorkville, in Manhattan, and the National, Rochester.

"The American girl is far too pure-minded for the foreign man." That was one of the significant things said by George C. Tyler, managing director of the theatrical firm of Liebler & Co., when he got back from Europe on his latest trip. Mr. Tyler, Booth Tarkington and Harry Leon Wilson had been making a tour of the continent and each had come to the con-
so tersely.

change," and in its the authors,
Europe. Of course, it is a comedy.

comedy. "The Man From Home" and

vein.
In "Foreign Exchange" the comedy element is dominant, but under it all there is a sharp sting for the foreign he-flirt, whose operations the authors and the head of the firm which produces the play have so recently studied.

Liebler & Company have completed the cast of "The Battle," the Cleveland Moffet plays which ran all last season at the Savoy Theatre in New York. Wilton Lackaye will continue as John Haggleton, "the richest man in New York." Harry Hilliard will be the Philip Ames, the son of Haggleton, who has been brought up among the poor of the East Side and who holds ideas directly opposite to those of his father. Thos. McGrane has the part of Gentle, the old socialist who has instructed Philip; Gerald Griffin is the Moran, and enemy to capitalists; Charles Abbe has his old part of Joe, with a fondness of picking the winners—or trying to—Clara Bland-lock will be Margaret Lawrence, the trained nurse who does her part in the battle for Philip, and Julie Herne will be seen as the unfortunate Jenny.

Miss Mable Hite has been engaged by Liebler & Company to star in a new comedy which the firm will produce a little later in the season, and in which the chief part is of the sort Miss Hite has been so successful in portraying. In connection with this engagement, there is another announcement which should be of interest to a great many thousands who see in Miss Hite not only a capable and entertaining actress but also the wife of the celebrated Mike Donlin, hero of many a diamond battle. Mr.
Donlin will be a member of the company, and from opening date and after will literally support his wife. A part is being written for the outfielder who was for so long a favorite with the New York fans, and when the comedy is put on, the bold Mike may be expected to speak such lines as his baseball admirers will look to him to speak.

P. O. CLERK SENT UP.
Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 11.—James Adams, former money order clerk at the Ensley, Ala., postoffice, entered a plea of guilty in the United States court here today and was sentenced to the federal penitentiary for one year and to pay a fine of $1,500 on a charge of embezzlement. His defendants amounted to fourteen hundred dollars. He was arrested in Massachusetts and brought back for trial.

TENN. MAN APPOINTED.
Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 11.—Jackson Smith, of this city, and formerly member of the Panama canal commission, has been appointed vice-president and general manager of the Oregon Trunk Line. This is a new railroad under construction in central Oregon. It is being built by the James J. Hill interests. Mr. Smith has come to Portland to take up his new duties.

SPANISH FORCES ADVANCING.
Melilla, Morocco, Sept. 11.—Reinforcements to the number of 11,000 have arrived here. General Marina, commander of the Spanish forces in Morocco, continues to advance his line with the object of outflanking the Moorish positions on Mount Guiza.
The Spanish advance column have encountered many natives who beg for the restoration of peace.

FAIRBANKS IN SHANGHAI.
Shanghai, Sept. 11.—Former Vice-President Fairbanks, accompanied by Mrs. Fairbanks, arrived here four days ago from the north and left today for Manila by way of Nagasaki. The Mr. Fairbanks' visit to China at the present time as especially helpful to American interests.

GOVERNORS TO MEET.
Baton Rouge, La., Sept. 11.—Governor Sanders today issued an invitation to the governors of the southern states and the members of the conservative commission of the southern states to meet in conference in New Orleans on Monday, November 1, during the time of the Lakes-to-the-Gulf Deep Waterways convention. The meeting is to be held for the purpose of considering plans for the conservation of the natural resources of the southern states.
